BASSENEAN BOY KNOCKS THE ‘ESTABLISHMENT’

Knocking the “establishment” was part of the fun at the University Camp for Kids at Palm Beach. Ten-year-old Shane Jones, of Bassendean (in jeans), makes no bones about getting into the act with a dish of pepper when the children decided to pay their “respects” to the camp’s director, Mr Peter Mallabone, even protesting vigorously as he is held down for his punishment.

Clipping courtesy of Peter Mallabone

1972 or 1973